Southern Teachers Agency is assisting First Baptist Academy (FBA) in the search for their next Executive Director of Advancement. The school serves 460 students from infants through grade eight. The mission of First Baptist Academy is to equip students with the Truth of God's Word while developing their character, intellect, and potential to explore, create, challenge, and lead. FBA is dedicated to the preparation of leaders. Throughout their years at FBA, students learn leadership skills and put them into practice in and out of the classroom. The lessons they learn provide a solid foundation for their future years in high school, college and beyond.

First Baptist Academy, seeks qualified applicants for the full-time position of Executive Director of Advancement, to begin by summer 2012. Applicants must have experience in admissions and development, the ability to successfully market FBA to prospective families, and the understanding of how to involve parents to serve and give to the school community. The Executive Director of Advancement will be responsible for implementation of the school's development program and for overseeing admissions and marketing processes and activities. The candidate must be a mature Christian with experience in internal and external marketing, digital communications, advertising, and social media. Candidates with a Bachelor's degree or equivalent and at least three to five years of experience in admissions and/or development should apply.

Interested applicants should submit by email an STA application, current resume, list of references, and educational philosophy to
