Southern Teachers Agency is assisting Germantown Academy in the search for their next Head of Lower School. The Academy is a non-sectarian, coeducational, college preparatory school of more than 1090 students in grades prekindergarten through twelve, located in the northwest suburbs of Philadelphia on a campus of 110 acres. The Lower School serves approximately 350 students in grades prekindergarten through five with multiple sections at each grade level. A talented faculty of 60 teachers and assistant teachers pursue a developmentally sensitive and challenging curriculum that utilizes multiple teaching strategies, technology, and a significant amount of interdisciplinary study.

The Head of Lower School is in charge of the daily operations of the division and the supervision and support of the faculty and staff. He or she will monitor academic programs in the Lower School and develop close working relationships with parents. Major disciplinary decisions will be the responsibility of the Head of Lower School as is the management of the Lower School budget. Required as well are participation in school administrative meetings and assisting in the strategic planning for the division and the whole school. The Head of Lower School reports to the Head of School.

Germantown Academy seeks candidates who exhibit a love of working with children, teachers, and parents and who possess integrity, maturity, good judgment, and the ability to make informed decisions, even in challenging situations. The best candidates will have experience teaching elementary aged students and have previous administrative experience as a head of lower school.
