Southern Teachers Agency is assisting Hill Country Christian School of Austin in the search for their next Upper School Principal. Hill Country, established in 1996 and serving 485 students in grades prekindergarten through twelve, provides an intimate, family-friendly environment where students are nurtured and challenged to develop their God-given gifts and where they are encouraged to discover and embrace their identity and purpose in Christ. As a Christ-centered school, Hill Country affirms that all truth is God's truth, and it is committed to integrating faith and learning by teaching all subjects from a Christian world- and life- view. As a classical school, Hill Country emphasizes mastery of the liberal arts, and it teaches students to value truth, beauty, and goodness. As a college-preparatory school, Hill Country offers a comprehensive curriculum that meets or exceeds the admission requirements of the most selective colleges and universities in the nation. Home of the University of Texas as well as a world-renowned music scene, Austin, is consistently rated one of the top places to live in the United States.

Hill Country seeks a strong leader in curriculum and in recruiting and developing faculty to be their next Upper School Principal. Responsibilities for this position include day-to-day operation of the upper school (grades seven through twelve), faculty supervision, and the representation of Hill Country's Upper School both inside and outside the school community. The best candidates will be collaborative and have a passion for and understanding of high school adolescents. Experience at the department head level or above is required as is the signing of a declaration of faith, which is available for review on the school website.

Interested applicants should submit by email an STA application, current resume, list of references, and educational philosophy to
