Southern Teachers Agency is assisting St. Christopher's School in the search for a new position, Assistant Head for Curriculum and Leadership Programs. St. Christopher's School is an Episcopal, college-preparatory day school for boys in Richmond, VA. Founded in 1911, the school currently serves 955 boys in grades junior kindergarten through twelve. In its Second Century Vision, St. Christopher's seeks to be a global leader in understanding boys, engaging and educating them most effectively, and developing in the boys the character, wisdom, and life skills necessary to serve as meaningful leaders in a quickly changing future.

St. Christopher's believes that leadership is utilizing one's character, wisdom, and life skills to make a positive difference in the lives of others and has identified an Essential Qualities of Leadership list that the Second Century Vision seeks to enhance and strengthen across the entire school program. Special emphasis will be placed on elevating the school's focus on creativity, intellectual risk-taking, collaboration and empathy, global engagement, and technological savvy. The Assistant Head for Curriculum and Leadership Programs will report to the Headmaster, work closely with the Division Heads, and collaborate with administrators and faculty to support curricular enhancements K-12 and guide new internal and external program development out of the Luck Leadership Center. The school seeks an individual with significant experience in educational administration and active leadership challenges.
